Permissions

Class Photographs/Videos/Marketing and Promotion/Publications

There are a number of ways we celebrate your child's work or accomplishments. This can involve publishing stories or images in our school newsletter, using images on the school website or other media platforms.

With your child attending this school we take this as consent for these images to appear in this media. If you choose to withdraw this consent please notify the school in writing. If you would like to discuss this in more detail please contact the Principal.

Responsible Use of Technology

We consent to our child using all aspects of technology at Kavanagh College.

- The college is committed to maintaining appropriate standards for students when using or sharing resources using Information and Communication Technologies (ICT)
- The college has a Student Technology User Agreement and staff will explain the content of this agreement with students before signing
- The college shall be responsible for determining the definition of misuse or inappropriate use of technology in the event of a dispute.
- Audits will be conducted by the college of internet usage from time-to-time.
- Any actions taken for misuse will be cognizant and compatible with current discipline policy

Attendance Dues

We agree to pay the Attendance Dues as a condition of enrolment. These are allowed for in the Private Schools Conditional Integration Act 1975 (commonly referred to as the Integration Act) They are not tax deductible.

Attendance dues are used to:

- Insure the school buildings
- Service and pay off loans taken out to provide those buildings originally
- Provide any capital improvement required by the Minister

Attendance dues are paid directly to the Proprietor, the Bishop of Dunedin.

PERSONAL INFORMATION AND THE PRIVACY ACT (2020)

Kavanagh College collects and keeps a large amount of personal information about each student. The Privacy Act 2020 protects the information you give the college and details conditions under which personal information can be obtained, used, stored and exchanged with other interested parties. The college considers the privacy of this information to be important and has policies and procedures which reflect the Thirteen Privacy Principles as set out in the Act to protect this information.

The college collects personal information from its students so that they can be enrolled at the college, have their attendance and progress recorded, be entered for examinations, or be contacted by the college. The college also collects information about the caregivers of the students so that they may be informed of student progress, or contacted by the college, and because the safety of the student is important.

Personal information may be disclosed to other education agencies, such as the Ministry of Education and the New Zealand Qualifications Authority; and to Government agencies such as the New Zealand Police if they demonstrate a statutory right to obtain it. Personal information may be retained by the college after the student leaves in order for the college to maintain a list of past students. Personal information may also be disclosed to The Foundation Trust and the Parent Teacher Association to assist in compiling its membership register.

Under the Privacy Act 2020 you have the right of access to all personal information held by the college about you. You also have the right to ask the college to correct any information held which is inaccurate. You can exercise the right by applying to the college.

You also have an obligation to advise the college if/when any of the personal information you have provided changes.

If for any reason your enrolment is not accepted, this enrolment form will be destroyed.

For more information, refer to the Policies section on the college website.

Before you submit your enrolment, please reflect on the words to the College Prayer:

The Kavanagh School Prayer

We pray for the community of Kavanagh College.

May we grow in Respect for ourselves, each other and our world.

May respect lead to Service to those in need.

Through service may we bring about Justice and in justice may we reflect and share the Truth of the gospels.

This we pray in the spirit of Catherine McAuley, Edmund Rice and St Dominic.

With Mary as our guide,

Through Jesus Christ, Amen.
