Class Photographs/Videos/Marketing and Promotion/Publications

There are a number of ways we love to celebrate your child's work or accomplishments. This can involve publishing stories or images in our school newsletter, using images on the school website or in the local newspaper.

With your son/daughter attending this school we take this as consent for these images to appear in this media. If you choose to withdraw this consent please notify the school in writing. If you would like to discuss this in more detail please contact Principal Tracy O'Brien.

Responsible Use of Technology

We consent to our son/daughter using all aspects of technology at Kavanagh College.

- The College is committed to maintaining appropriate standards for students when using or sharing resources using Information and Communication Technologies (ICT)*
- The College has a Cyber-Safety Usage Agreement and staff will explain the consequences of breaking this Agreement to students*
- The College shall be responsible for determining the definition of misuse or inappropriate use of technology in the event of a dispute.*
- Audits will be conducted by the College of internet usage from time-to-time.*
- Any actions taken for misuse will be cognizant and compatible with current discipline policy*

Attendance Dues

We agree to pay the Attendance Dues as a condition of enrolment. These are allowed for in the Private Schools Conditional Integration Act 1975 (commonly referred to as the Integration Act) They are not tax deductible.

Attendance dues are used to:

- Insure the school buildings*
- Service and pay off loans taken out to provide those buildings originally*
- Provide any capital improvement required by the Minister*

Attendance dues are paid directly to the Proprietor, the Bishop of Dunedin.

Privacy Act

Contact details on this form are required by law to be forwarded to the Ministry of Social Development. This is so at risk young people can be identified and offered support by organisations contracted to help re-engage young people in education or training when they leave school. The information will not be used for any other purpose.

Before you submit your enrolment, please reflect on the words to the College Prayer:

The Kavanagh School Prayer

We pray for the community of Kavanagh College.

May we grow in Respect for ourselves, each other and our world.

May respect lead to Service to those in need.

Through service may we bring about Justice and in justice may we reflect and share the Truth of the gospels.

This we pray in the spirit of Catherine McAuley, Edmund Rice and St Dominic.

With Mary as our guide,

Through Jesus Christ, Amen.
